

International Economics and Trade

Duration of Study: 4 years
(Bachelor's Degree)

Contact Information (academic consultation):

Prof. Tang

Email : 77252926@qq.com

Tel : +86 18787027037;

To meet the needs for international economic and trade talents in the process of economic globalization, our university provides courses in International Economy and Trade taught in English. It aims to cultivate highly qualified professionals with good command of professional theories and methods, modern information technology and data analysis as well as management skills, innovation and entrepreneurship. Graduates may engage in business management, research and consultancy in international institutions, government departments, financial sector, and multinational enterprises, etc.. The teaching team consists of more than 10 teachers with international education background and teaching experience. They have obtained PhD degrees in famous universities at home and abroad, possessing rich teaching experience and impressive scientific research achievements. Foreign teachers will also be invited as lecturers.

Core Curriculum:

1. Microeconomics
2. Macroeconomics
3. Management
4. Information Management
5. Statistics
6. Econometrics
7. International Trade
8. International Trade Practice
9. International Finance
10. International Direct Investment

